

EXTRA NOTHING DONE.

Polls Close After a Heavy Vote
Close Upon the Registration.

About 200,000 New York Citizens Exercised the Suffrage.

An Unusually Uneventful Election, but Lots of Excitement.

The Counting of the Ballots Begun and Watchers on Hand.

Scenes in the Various Districts
Photographed by "Evening World" Reporters.

Bright Phoebus shone to-day upon an off-year election. The polls opened at 8 o'clock, and before Old Sol had got far into the heavens his rays saw a great people exercising the modern right of self-government.

The election was very quiet in most of the election precincts. The booths of the several political organizations, not always placed so far as 100 feet from the polling place, as prescribed by law, were guide-posts to the wayfarer. A solitary "bachelor" looking desolate and alone, and two more or less nonchalant policemen, marked the very entrance to the scene of self-governing suffrage.

In the downtown districts the working force at the polls consisted of a clerk or clerkess, a Tammany man, but as many County Democrats and one or two Republicans. Upon the distribution of ticket peddlers and pullers in was even more.

In many districts at the lower end of the island there was not even a solitary Republican at the polls, a sign instead attracting the attention of the suffragist to a long green box, divided into small compartments, in which the ballots of the G. O. P. were to be found.

HEAVY FORENOON VOTE.
The early vote was surprisingly large in most downtown districts at 10 o'clock, and it was generally conceded that Tammany Hall was getting out her men in the best form.

After an extensive tour of election districts in all parts of the city, by "Evening World" reporters, it appeared at noon that over 150,000 voters had cast their ballots.

Ex-Warden Tom Walsh voted in his Park street polling-place early, and then repaired to Court street, where he is a power. Strange to say, despite his city-made reputation, he was not straight combination ticket bearing the three candidates of the hated Republican party as well as those of the County Democrats.

It was generally conceded that Col. Mike Murphy was getting a large vote in the Fifth, and John F. Alden was making it a hard race for Tom Brady in the Sixth Senate District.

DAN O'BRIEN'S OPEN.
The only place on the lower east side where there was any excitement in the early morning ballot box was at Dan O'Brien's. Here the One Hundred Foot law was a dead letter. The workers, however, were not tampering with the door of the basement polling place, blocking the way. Presently a crowd began to gather, and the workers were stopped and the "boys" would hustle him away for more excitement.

"GENERAL" VOTERS.
One man, an Italian, was yanked out of the very polling booth just as he was offering his ballot and rushed around into Worth street to listen to argument.

But in the uptown districts the work was more energetic. There was much vote-peddling, but the workers were energetic and even Tammany Hall seemed to have the advantage in enthusiasm. The Counties seemed only half-hearted, and the Republicans were perfunctory.

WHITE RADIOS HERE AND THERE.
As to "citizens," in the downtown precincts there was not a white badge to be seen anywhere, and an occasional booth and a stray white badge indicated the "citizen" movement in the uptown precincts.

WARRANTS FOR "FLOATERS."
Policeman Curry, of the Leonard street station, has twelve and the Eldridge street police twenty warrants, issued yesterday, for persons said to have illegally registered in these precincts.

Business was quite generally suspended all over the city. The County House, City Hall, the Post Office and all the courts except those directed to be open for special purposes connected with the election and justice functions of the Supreme Court, all day in Chambers, were ready for immediate closing in mandamus, habeas corpus and injunction proceedings which may arise out of the performance or non-performance of the election officers.

CITIZENS VOLUNTEERS.
Oliver Sumner Teale's 450 volunteer Republicans looked like a good many gathered together last night at the Bartholomew, but dispersed among the 1,019 election districts of the city, they are hardly noticeable to-day.

WATCH "THE WORLD" BULLETIN.
To-night people anxious to learn the result early will demand, picking up the strap votes here, of course, on THE EVENING WORLD bulletin board in Park Row.

It is a curious fact that the public in the court-room on the third floor at Police Headquarters. They will be tabulated by districts at the police stations and sent by special messengers to headquarters.

MR. BRODsky WAS NERVOUS.
What will the harvest be—see, oh, what will the harvest be? It was the harpist's voice of John E. Brodsky, the able and active lieutenant of John Essex, who called this inquiry in the Essex market place this morning.

What occasions this meditative interrogation of the fates, Johnny? asked THE EVENING WORLD reporter.

Well, you see, it was suggested by the present condition of affairs. I feel nervous. The harvest is all done. The election is over. Now we have the harvest and our reapers are all gathered in the vote, which promise to be abundant.

O'BRIEN THERE TOO.
"The Chief, here," indicating the great O'Brien chief, who was by his side, "and I are here, taking care that every vote is counted."

The active lieutenant then turned to attend to the business of the hour, which was to secure a release of three young men who had been arrested for alleged voting in an easy humor; Police Justice Duffy was in an easy humor;

the evidence was very slim, showing the poll-clerk to be more to blame than the voters, in that they had recorded names improperly, and the young men were released after hurriedly off to work for O'Brien and victory.

NO "CITIZENS" ARRESTED.
"One of those fellows was a Tammany Hall man, another a County Democrat and the third a Regular Republican," said Brodsky, turning to the reporter. "You may say that none of the Citizens' party has been arrested."

The reporter turned his attention to the Chief and asked him for his opinion as to the result in the district.

"I don't know much about such things since I got out of politics," returned Mr. O'Brien, with a merry twinkle in his eye.

SURE SMITH AND GOETZ WILL WIN.
Growing serious, however, he said: "Smith and Goetz will be elected by 1,000 majority. Mind now, not plurality but majority over all. The readings will wonder what they are organized for."

SOLD FOR DIERL.
"How are you people voting for Senator?" For Dierl; solidly for Dierl. There are a few fellows to whom we will administer a lesson, however."

NO HUM AT SILVER DOLLARS.
One of the wonders of to-day's night in the Eighth District was a wonderful fact that nearly all the voters in the Twelfth Election District when they voted, were "silver dollar" men. It was the fact that Assemblyman "Silver Dollar" Smith's saloon in Essex street was actually open.

The showmen were all raised and the whole interior was open to the view of the officers in the Essex market place Court across the way.

Nobody was inside and the officers with the queer combination could not enter the City Reform Club. Pinkerton detectives, who were on the lookout for fraud and bribery.

MR. SMITH WAS HURLING.
The big Assemblyman was hurrying over the district and haranguing Butler was outside the saloon, dealing out tickets to the voters.

George J. Kane's saloon in the Bowery, was "open" to the voters. "Silver Dollar" Smith, both men were attending strictly to their profession as politicians and letting the beer business alone for the day.

Barnes' saloon in the corner of Grand and Chrystie streets, also appeared to be closed, but there were suspicious sounds and commings at the side door.

Quiet reigned everywhere in the district, and a comparatively light vote was being polled, with the jubilant O'Brienites evidently in the lead.

QUIT ON THE WEST SIDE.
On the west side the voting was going on steadily but quietly this morning.

Police Captain Keegan and Brogan each stated to an EVENING WORLD reporter that there was no trouble of any kind about the polls, and they do not see any reason to be alarmed.

ONE OF THE FEW ARRESTS.
Dennis Kinsale was brought to the Jefferson Market Police Court by Officer Finney on complaint of a man who said Dennis had falsely registered.

The complainant failed to appear in court, and Dennis was discharged.

It was the only case connected with politics in the court this morning.

JOHN TURNER'S CANTERS.
At Iccan Turner's headquarters, No. 4 West Thirtieth street and 509 Hudson street, his friends were busy with the registration. They said his chances of election were good.

He could not be found. He was all over his district hustling for votes and support with his characteristic impetuosity.

READY AT POLICE HEADQUARTERS.
There was the usual Election Day show of blue cloth and brass buttons at Police Headquarters to-day and of patrol wagons for "riot duty" in the street; but it might all as well have been omitted.

SEVENTY POLLING-PLACE VACANCIES.
The Police Commissioners filled vacancies made by the desertion of sixty toll clerks and seventy toll clerks, and removed Mark M. Droe, in the Twenty-seventh Election District of the Ninth Assembly District for being drunk on duty.

JOHN L. DAVENPORT'S WORK.
A dozen warrants were issued by United States Supervisor Davenport against men alleged to have registered illegally in the Ninth Congressional District and the prisoners taken before United States Commissioner Shields.

Vincent Albright was accused of having registered a resident of 313 East Houston street, but proved a residence at 303 East Houston street, and was discharged.

John Laubach was charged with not residing at 55 First avenue, where he registered from. He proved that his claim was correct and was released.

CLOSE OF THE POLLS.
At 4 o'clock the polls closed in every district in this city, and it was estimated that about 200,000 of the registered voters had exercised the suffrage.

The work of counting the ballots was begun at once, and the registration of both parties being present in each district.

BLOODED REPORTS.
At 4:30 p. m. it was reported at Police Headquarters that the workers from the Twelfth Election District that there had been bloodshed in that precinct.

It was said that three men had been injured in a fight in "Hell's Kitchen."

ELECTION DAY THROUGH THE STATE.
Cloudy Weather General and a Light Vote in Most Quarters.

(SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.)
CATARAUGUS, Nov. 5.—Election day in the Mohawk Valley is delightful, and the prospects are for a full vote.

Montgomery County will go Democratic on the State ticket by about the usual 300, and Edward Wemple, for Comptroller, who resides at Fultonville, will probably carry the county by 800, a one-third falling off from his last run.

His friends and neighbors still believe in his official position.

Indications point to the election of John K. Stewart, Republican, of Amsterdam, for Assemblyman by a big majority.

Harvey J. Donaldson, Republican, of Ballston, will be elected Congressman from the Eighteenth District.

PORT JEFFERSON, Nov. 5.—The weather to-day is cloudy and the vote light. The election is passing off quietly.

CHEMUNG COUNTY.
ELMIRA, Nov. 5.—The weather to-day is cloudy, with indications of rain. The vote will probably be light.

A PROBABLE LAKE VOTE IN ONONDAGA COUNTY.
UTICA, Nov. 5.—The weather to-day is clear, and indications are that a large vote will be cast.

A BOLT AND FULL VOTE IN WYOMING.
WARREN, Nov. 5.—In Wyoming County the weather is raw and cloudy, but the roads are fair.

The bolt made by County Judge Healy will hold out a full Democratic and Republican vote.

BROOME COUNTY—FULL VOTE IN BINGHAMTON.
BINGHAMTON, Nov. 5.—The weather is clear and a full vote will be polled.

SARATOGA COUNTY—WEMPLE AND TADOR SUPPORTERS.
SARATOGA, Nov. 5.—Election is passing off smoothly throughout Saratoga County, and the count vote is being called. It is reported that many Democrats are searching Wemple and Tador.

The Second Assembly District the Democrats are making a strong effort to elect Dr. Frank M. Boyce over Monroe L. Nathan, the Republican nominee for the Assembly.

ALBANY COUNTY—LAKE VOTE FOR OCT. YEAR.
ALBANY, Nov. 5.—Weather cloudy and cold. Vote large for an off-year. No disturbances.

CAYUGA OBJECTS TO TADOR AND WEMPLE.
ALBANY, Nov. 5.—The Democrats are searching Tador and Wemple.

ALBANY, Nov. 5.—The Democrats are searching Tador and Wemple.

BEAUFORT, Nov. 5.—The weather is clear and cold. A large vote is being called.

Phenomenal curve of the river, higher and then lower, troubles Dr. Boyce's electric power, etc.

O'BRIEN'S COUP. KASSON.

Democratic State and County Tickets Worked by the Ex-Chief.

Johnny's Fine Revenge on the Republican Reformers.

But One Republican Name on His Sets of Ballots.

Everything Sacrificed for Silver-Dollar Smith and Alderman Goetz.

The "Citizens" ticket voted in the Eighth Assembly District to-day was of a novel and startling variety.

It was by no means the ticket which Mr. Grace's so-called citizens' mass-meeting placed in nomination for the suffrages of the people. In fact, it contained not one name which adorns that ticket.

Johnny O'Brien was not allowed to assist in making the Saratoga ticket and naturally did not feel in duty bound to support it. For that reason and the further reason that he desires the Republican party of this State to recognize the fact that he is an element of strength not to be despised, as were his demands for admission to the Saratoga Convention, Mr. O'Brien gave his earnest and hearty support to the entire Democratic State ticket.

And this despite the fact that the John J. O'Brien Association announced its intention to heap coals of fire on the heads of the persecutors of the chief of the Republican party.

The tickets here given were bunched in every ward and precinct, and the result was a landslide for the Democrats.

For Secretary of State, FRANK RICE.
For Comptroller, EDWARD WEMPLE.
For Treasurer, ELLIOT DANFORTH.
For Attorney-General, CHARLES F. TADOR.
For State Engineer and Surveyor, JOHN BOGAERT.

STATE.

For Secretary of State, FRANK RICE.
For Comptroller, EDWARD WEMPLE.
For Treasurer, ELLIOT DANFORTH.
For Attorney-General, CHARLES F. TADOR.
For State Engineer and Surveyor, JOHN BOGAERT.

JUDICIARY.

"For Associate of the Court of Appeals," ALBERT H. HART.
"For Judge of the Court of Common Pleas," HENRY B. SCHOFF, Jr.
"For Judge of the Court of General Sessions," HENRY A. GILDERLEEVE.
"For Justices of the City Court," JOSEPH E. NEWBERGER.

SENATOR.

For Senator for the Seventh Senate District, FREDERICK W. DIEHL.

ASSEMBLY.

For Member of Assembly for the Eighth Assembly District, CHARLES SMITH.

CITY AND COUNTY.

For Register, FRANK T. FITZGERALD.
For President of the Board of Aldermen, JOHN H. V. ARNOLD.

ALDERMAN.

"For Alderman in the Eighth Assembly District as the same existed on the first day of January, 1882," CHRISTIAN GOETZ.

PATENT BOXES DIDN'T WORK

A hot local fight is in progress in Hudson County and Jersey City.

Under the new law there are ten Freeholders to be elected in place of twenty, and a new Council of Freeholders is created as the head of the Freeholders.

A bitter contest is in progress over Assemblyman Curry, who is a Republican, and matters are somewhat mixed.

James Murphy is the regular Democratic nominee for the office of Freeholder, and John H. Davis, who was appointed Freeholder in 1880, is the regular Republican opponent.

A Labor man is a fifth enemy.

In Jersey City the election opened this morning in a quiet manner by the regular inspectors after he had tried to force his way in, but no row occurred over the matter.

There was difficulty over the new contrivances to receive votes in sixteen precincts, and the inspectors were guarded their successful working, sent men to instruct the inspectors to work them.

In the mean time the ballots were received and deposited in eight boxes, and afterwards deposited into the patent boxes.

John H. Davis, who was appointed Freeholder by the Freeholders, at the polling-place in Frank No. 10 house in Ninth street, was refused admittance to the room by the regular inspectors after he had tried to force his way in, but no row occurred over the matter.

There was difficulty over the new contrivances to receive votes in sixteen precincts, and the inspectors were guarded their successful working, sent men to instruct the inspectors to work them.

In the mean time the ballots were received and deposited in eight boxes, and afterwards deposited into the patent boxes.

John H. Davis, who was appointed Freeholder by the Freeholders, at the polling-place in Frank No. 10 house in Ninth street, was refused admittance to the room by the regular inspectors after he had tried to force his way in, but no row occurred over the matter.

There was difficulty over the new contrivances to receive votes in sixteen precincts, and the inspectors were guarded their successful working, sent men to instruct the inspectors to work them.

In the mean time the ballots were received and deposited in eight boxes, and afterwards deposited into the patent boxes.

John H. Davis, who was appointed Freeholder by the Freeholders, at the polling-place in Frank No. 10 house in Ninth street, was refused admittance to the room by the regular inspectors after he had tried to force his way in, but no row occurred over the matter.

Sims Lands Him Victor for the Athos Handicap.

Sim's Lands Him Victor
for the Athos Handicap.

Sim's Lands Him Victor
for the Athos Handicap.

Sim's Lands Him Victor
for the Athos Handicap.

Sim's Lands Him Victor
for the Athos Handicap.

Sim's Lands Him Victor
for the Athos Handicap.

Sim's Lands Him Victor
for the Athos Handicap.

Sim's Lands Him Victor
for the Athos Handicap.

Sim's Lands Him Victor
for the Athos Handicap.

Sim's Lands Him Victor
for the Athos Handicap.

Sim's Lands Him Victor
for the Athos Handicap.

Sim's Lands Him Victor
for the Athos Handicap.

Sim's Lands Him Victor
for the Athos Handicap.

Sim's Lands Him Victor
for the Athos Handicap.

Sim's Lands Him Victor
for the Athos Handicap.

Sim's Lands Him Victor
for the Athos Handicap.

Sim's Lands Him Victor
for the Athos Handicap.

Sim's Lands Him Victor
for the Athos Handicap.

Sim's Lands Him Victor
for the Athos Handicap.

Sim's Lands Him Victor
for the Athos Handicap.

Sim's Lands Him Victor
for the Athos Handicap.

DAILY THE VICTOR, FOOTBALL TO-DAY.

He Defeats Gabig in a Fierce and Bloody Prize Fight.

One of the most brutal and bloody prize fights on record was fought at an early hour this morning, near Flushing. During the eleven exciting rounds, which occupied only forty-five minutes, the winner had his right hand broken, while his opponent's features were smashed entirely out of recognition.

The principals were Bill Gabig, "The Myerous Boxer," of Pittsburgh, and James Daly, of Philadelphia.

It took approximately a battle of giants, for Gabig weighed 204 pounds and was 5 feet 11 inches tall, while Daly tipped the scales at 178 pounds and stood 5 feet 6 inches in height.

The fight was to a finish, with Gabig winning, for $250 a side and a purse of $100.

The fight was to a finish, with Gabig winning, for $250 a side and a purse of $100.

The fight was to a finish, with Gabig winning, for $250 a side and a purse of $100.

The fight was to a finish, with Gabig winning, for $250 a side and a purse of $100.

The fight was to a finish, with Gabig winning, for $250 a side and a purse of $100.

The fight was to a finish, with Gabig winning, for $250 a side and a purse of $100.

The fight was to a finish, with Gabig winning, for $250 a side and a purse of $100.

The fight was to a finish, with Gabig winning, for $250 a side and a purse of $100.

The fight was to a finish, with Gabig winning, for $250 a side and a purse of $100.

The fight was to a finish, with Gabig winning, for $250 a side and a purse of $100.

The fight was to a finish, with Gabig winning, for $250 a side and a purse of $100.

The fight was to a finish, with Gabig winning, for $250 a side and a purse of $100.

The fight was to a finish, with Gabig winning, for $250 a side and a purse of $100.

The fight was to a finish, with Gabig winning, for $250 a side and a purse of $100.

The fight was to a finish, with Gabig winning, for $250 a side and a purse of $100.

The fight was to a finish, with Gabig winning, for $250 a side and a purse of $100.

The fight was to a finish, with Gabig winning, for $250 a side and a purse of $100.

The fight was to a finish, with Gabig winning, for $250 a side and a purse of $100.

The fight was to a finish, with Gabig winning, for $250 a side and a purse of $100.

The fight was to a finish, with Gabig winning, for $250 a side and a purse of $100.

The fight was to a finish, with Gabig winning, for $250 a side and a purse of $100.

The fight was to a finish, with Gabig winning, for $250 a side and a purse of $100.

EXTRA AT ELIZABETH.

Hamilton Had Hard Work to Make King Crab a Winner.

CASTAWAY II. WAS CLOSE UP.

Badge Had an Easy Victory, Defeating Lavinia Belle by a Length and a Half.

FORDHAM WON UNDER A PULL

(SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.)
ELIZABETH RACE TRACK, Nov. 5.—Five thousand solid American citizens after casting their vote have come here to-day to see the running of the good card offered by the New Jersey Jockey Club.

As early as noon the people began to arrive from the neighboring towns, and they continued to come until all afternoon.

The crowd from the city took the railroads to their full capacity.

Most of the crowd are ladies bedecked in all the latest of their Fall costumes, which makes the stand a place of beauty, causing many of the sterner sex to forsake the ring and spend the afternoon with their fair companions.

The lower floor of the club-house has been filled with all the comforts of a ladies' parlor, and has been thrown open by the Club to its lady patrons.

FIRST RACE.
Sweepstakes of $10 each, for non-winners at the meeting, with $500 added; one mile.

Starters: 1. Bader, 2. Bader, 3. Bader, 4. Bader, 5. Bader, 6. Bader, 7. Bader, 8. Bader, 9. Bader, 10. Bader.

The race was a close one, with Lavinia Belle leading, but she was overtaken by Badge, who won by a length and a half.